

STUDENTS WAITING January 24, 2017

17 potential students

T.R. A woman in her late 40's originally from Mexico who has been in the U.S. for 4 months. She currently lives in Westbrook and works in Old Saybrook. She has a 6th grade education in her country and is a basic beginner with almost no English skills. She is a sweet and shy woman who would need lots of encouragement. She would be available for tutoring in the evenings or weekends at the Acton Library in Old Saybrook or the Westbrook Library. Added 11/10/16

M.G. A woman in her early 40's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 10 years and lives in Old Saybrook with her husband and 3 children. She works full time and does drive. Her Basic English skills are very good and her comprehension skills are much better than her speaking skills. She finished high school and one year of college in Ecuador and worked as a Secretary before coming to the U.S. She would like to be able to communicate better at her work with her clients. She is a charming woman who would be available for tutoring at the Acton Library. Added 11/10/16

L.R. A woman in her early 40's originally from Honduras. She currently lives in Westbrook and works in Clinton as a machine operator. She has had a tutor in the past and would like to resume working with a tutor. Her comprehension is very good and she would like to be able to read and write in English as well as improve her speaking abilities. She would be available for tutoring on Monday mornings at the Westbrook Library. Added 11/10/16

N.O. A woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador. She currently lives in Clinton and has a high school education. She is at beginner level, but her reading and listening skills are very strong. Her speaking and writing skills still need work, but have improved over the last year since working with a tutor. Her current tutor can no longer work with her and says she is an eager learner with a very sweet and earnest disposition. She works Monday through Friday from 9:00am to 9:00pm in Old Saybrook, her tutor has been working with her at her job on Wednesday evenings. Added 11/10/16

M.D. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Brazil who now lives in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for 10 years and currently works as a self-employed housekeeper. She attended college in Brazil and has a special needs elementary aged daughter who she would like to be able to help with school work. Her comprehension and Basic English are very good and she would like to improve her vocabulary and grammar. She would be available for tutoring on Monday or Tuesday mornings at the Westbrook Library or the Weekends. Added 11/10/16

N.R. A woman in her mid 40's originally from Honduras who now lives in Deep River. She has been in the U.S. for 13 years and who has basic comprehension and English skills. She was able to answer all of the assessment questions in full sentences with detail. She works as a housekeeper and would like to improve her English skills to help her daughter and to communicate better for her work. She would be available for tutoring on Sundays mornings. Added 11/10/16

A.D. A young woman in her late 20's originally from Mexico who now lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for 9 years and currently works part time. She has basic comprehension and was able to respond in full sentences for her assessment. She would like to be able to help her children with school work and to improve her English to get a better job. She would be available for tutoring in the mornings at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 11/10/16

V.C. A young woman in her late 20's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 5 years and lives in Westbrook. She can read and speak conversational English fairly well. She would like to improve her vocabulary and sentence structure. She finished high school in Ecuador and is eager to learn. She is available for tutoring at the Westbrook Library or possibly another location any evening of the week. Added 12/7/16

M.P. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Brazil. She has been in the U.S. for about 5 months and currently lives in Westbrook. She is a basic beginner who can speak almost no English. She is very friendly and eager to learn. She is available for tutoring Monday, Thursday or Friday depending on her work schedule. A potential tutor would need to speak with her contact person to set up tutoring times. She would be available for tutoring at the Westbrook Library or another possible agreed upon location. Added 1/5/17

S.G. A woman in her early 30's originally from Guatemala. She has been in the U.S. for 9 years and currently lives in Westbrook. She can comprehend and speak some basic conversational English. She does work part time and would be available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library or another agreed upon location. Added 1/25/17

K.D. A man in his mid 20's originally from Honduras. He has been in the U.S. for 3 years and currently lives in Westbrook. He can speak and comprehend some basic English and is eager to improve his English skills. He does work full time and would be available for tutoring on Tuesday evenings at the Westbrook Library. Added 1/25/17

J.W. A man in his early 30's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 3 years and speaks very little English. He works part time as a landscaper and would be available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library. Added 1/25/17

L.C. A woman in her late 30's originally from Honduras. She has been in the U.S. for 13 years and currently lives in Ivoryton. She speaks and comprehends English on a low intermediate level. She completed high school in her country and enjoys reading. She is currently a stay at home mother and would be available for tutoring on Monday mornings at the Ivoryton or Essex Library. Added 1/25/17

R.G.S. A woman in her mid 20's originally from Afghanistan. She has been in the U.S. for about 3 years and lives in Westbrook with her husband and children. She does speak and comprehend English on a conversational level. She is currently a stay at home mother but would like to improve her English enough to get a job. She has had a LVVS tutor in the past and is familiar with the process. She is very sweet and soft spoken and is available in the afternoons to be tutored at the Westbrook Library. Added 1/25/17

J.L. A woman in her early 50's originally from China. She has been in the US. for a few months and currently lives in Essex with her daughter. She speaks no English and could not answer any of the basic interview questions without her daughter's assistance. She would be available for tutoring in the evenings at the Deep River or Essex Library. Added 1/25/17

M.N. A woman in her early 60's originally from Georgia, a former Soviet republic. She has been in the U.S. for 12 years and currently works as a live in caretaker in Niantic. She is intelligent who completed University and comprehends English well but sometimes struggles in expressing herself. She can read and write in English but can use improvement. She would be available for tutoring in Niantic at her employer's home. Her schedule is flexible so a potential tutor would need to contact her to set up tutoring schedule. Added 1/25/17

B.L. A woman in her early 40's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 11 years and now lives in Ivoryton. She understands and speaks English quite well and would like to improve her English skills for work. She would be available for tutoring between 12-6pm during the week at either the Ivoryton or Essex Library. Added 1/25/17